"JACKSON PARK,"

IS THE NAME OF ANDERSON'S NEW ADDITION.

The McClure-Orr Farm Southwest of Town Transferred to Indianapolis Parties Who Plat it and Put it on the Market-Will Cater to the Laboring Man.

Anderson Herald, March 4, 1893.

Last evening long-pending negotiations between the owners of the Orr and McClure farm and a syndicate of Indianapolis capitalists, was consummated, where the latter come into possession of that piece of property.

The ground in question lies between the Big Four and Midland railroads, near the southwest corporation, lying partly east of the Hazen wire mill. It is sixty acres of the highest and best land in the city of Anderson. The consideration paid is $18 000.

THE NEW SYNDICATE

Is solely composed of Indianapolis parties, representing some of that city's most successful and influential business men. They are Messrs. Darlington, Panhandle superintendent of the Indianapolis division; Jno. R. Pearson, of the Indianapo.is Gas Company; Charles Martindale, a most successful lawyer; Joseph J. Kreber and Robert Martindale, real estate agents, and H. B. Stout, who has been making his headquarters in this city for the past year, and engaging in the real estate business.

JACKSON PARK

Is the name selected for the new addition. Robert Martindale has, for the past several months, been engaged in booming an addition by that name in Indianapolis, and has met with splendid success, therefore they hold to the name as a talisman, and will christen their Anderson addition Jackson Park.

DOWN-TOWN OFFICE.

The new syndicate have already secured commodious and handy downtown office quarters. The small white house, No. 16 North Meridian street, lying between Tenth and Eleventh streets, has been rented. It will be elegantly furnished, the outside elaborately decorated with signs, and on the inside will pose H. B. Stout as local agent and general hustler. He is a good man, and, with the backing of the above-named men, will make a success.

STREETS LAID OUT

At the addition. Just as soon as possible a large force of men will go to work extending unfinished streets through it, putting in good walks and planting Carolina poplar trees. The streets will be made to conform with those they are a continuation of, which are fifty feet in width. Alleys will be (14) fourteen feet. They will be well graded and in every respect be beauties.

CATER TO THE WORKING MAN.

The new addition is located right in the center of a bunch of eight of Anderson's best factories, the farthest being only six squares. This location was especially cited as being just what they want, as it is their intention of making their great hit with the laboring men. The addition will be laid off in about 300 lots, and these lots, with no discrimination as to location, will go on the market at $200 apiece. The terms will be $5 down and $5 per month until paid out. After $50 is paid in, a second mortgage will be taken and the owner allowed to build. This makes a splendid opport. nity for any laborer or anybody else to pbtain a home.

A NATURAL-GAS PLANT

Will be put in and presented to the property owners free of charge, all the requirement made is for them to keep it in operation and repair. Although none of the addition will be reserved as factory site, if any come their way unpoticed Brother Stout will extend his grabbers and set them down in one corner. The surrounding land, however, affords excellent sites, and it is highly probable that this will never be the case.

The new company starts out with spleudid prospects, and with plenty of capital to put all of the plans through. Although the Hazelwood street-car line already runs within three blocks of the new addition, an effort will be made to extend it out on Arrow avenue to the center of that addition. Other incidental improvements will follow.

MURPRY WAITING HIS FATE.

State's Attorney Haywood's Strong Summary of the Evidence Against the Rioter.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 3.-Peter Clark, who was described during the evidence against saloon keeper Murphy as rushing through the opera house the night the riot and flourishing & revolver, wanting to perforate Protestants in general and ex-priest Rudolph in particular, has been booked for trial on April 10. He is the man who was neatly floored by engineer Jack Hudlow, who wrenched a seat from the floor with which to smite the excited rioter. The argument still goes

Mr. Haywood, in his argument Saturday afternoon, alleged that the State had made ont a case of conspiracy, and that Murphy was firmly caught in the web; but this will be combated in the argument of counsel for Murphy. There has been one circumstance in the riotous proceedings that looks to the outside world as though there had been a premeditated understanding and matured plan in this attack upon the speaker. If the professor had been indulging in particularly excessively abusive language against the membership of the Catholic Church, or had traduced the Sieters of Charity, there might have been, in the opinion of some, an excuse for an outburst of indignation in the audience, among whom were many Catholica. But Rudelph had not reached the denunciatory period, if there was one, when the trouble began, More than that, the racket was not first created in the house, but by persons who were on the ontside and who forced open or secured entrance at the side door by pulling the doorkeeper outside.

Mr. Haywood, in his argument, collated somewhat the testimony of the State, as against Murphy, by stating that twentyseven persons swore in the witness-box to hearing shots fired from Section F, or in close proximity thereto, while seven persons swore positively to seeing the defendant shoot. One or two of these witnesses said they did not see Marphy's weapon, but they saw him, saw him raise his arm, saw the flash and heard the report. All of the witnesses of the State, as now remembered, testified to seeing Murphy moving toward the stage, which would be nearly south. One of them even placed him down in the parquet, which would have taken him clear around one section and part of an-

The experiments made by the State in shooting into cloths, linen shirt bosoms and woolen undershirts was not admitted (as has been stated) by the court; if it had been, the testimony of expert Fred Erb that bullets, in going through linen shirt bosoms leave no lead marks, would have been shown to be an error. They do, or did in the experiments made by the State. They also showed that bullets, in passing through stiffy-starched goods, frequently tear the goods. The "samples" made show, too, that the same weapon, using the same kind of cartridges and fired into the same goods, will not make the same kind of a hole every time.

BIG FOUR STRIKE.

Section Men at Lebanon Quit, Leaving Fifty Cars on the Main Tracks.

Special to the Indianavolis Journal. LEBANON, Ind., April 3.-To-day, while fifty cars of gravel were standing on the main line of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railway, to be unloaded on the right of way, the section men struck for a raise in wages from $1.10 to $1.25 per day. The company refused to listen to their demands, and ordered an extra gang from Thorntown to do the work. On there arrival the strikers threatened them with bodily harm if they took their places. This argument brought over the extra men with the strikers, and the loaded cars were side-tracked till the differences shall be adjusted.

THE STATE ENCAMPMENT.

Some Bad Blood Will Follow. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COVINGTON, Ind., April 3.-The Democrats held their election for postmaster of this place Saturday. There were three candidates and 351 votes were cast. James Simmerman received 208; James Bilsand, 75; William H. Miles, 73. Simmerman was a candidate for re-election on the Democratic ticket last fall for sheriff, being beaten by eight votes by Ambroze Moore. O. S. Douglass, one of the editors and proprietors of the leading Democratic organ of this county, the Covington Friend, who is also a candidate for the office, refused to go into an election, claiming that Congressman Brooksbire had already promised him his support for the office. A great many here believe that the election was called for the purpose of heading off Douglass, who is not very well liked by the leaders of his party. The fight from now on promises to be interesting, and bad blood is bound to follow.

Merchants Robbed by a Woman.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Ind., April 8 .- A week ago Beesie Owens, of Huntington, came to Wabash. and, calling at the millinery store of Adaline Frampton, asked to be shown some fine bats. She said she lived in the western part of the city, and requested permission to take two hats worth $11 home, promising to return one. She was allowed to do so, and at once departed for Huntington with the property. Officers here learned of her whereabouts, and going to Huntington recovered the hats. E. L. Bechtel, a shoe dealer, was "done" for two pairs of shoes worth $10 by the same girl and in the same manner, but the officers did not secure the shoes. The woman will not be prosecuted.

The gross revenue for the year is nearly $500 more than the postal law requires for the establishment of free delivery, and no effort was made to bring the receipts up to the $10,000 mark. Four carriers will be employed. The streets of the city having been named and numbered there will be no delay in securing free delivery.

Seven Men Terribly Injured in a Fight Over the Building of a Warehouse.

WEST UNION, Is., April 3.-A battle took place at Jackson Junction, twenty miles from here, this afternoon, between the employes of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway and mechanics and farmers. Miles McGovern and Peter Myers were determined to build a warehouse in spite of orders from the railway to the contrary. This morning the company sent seventy-five men to lay rails on the building spot to prevent the building. McGovern and Myers and a band of farmers resisted, and a bloody battle took place, resulting in seven or eight men being terribly injured, one of whom will die. The men became wild and fought like demons with crowbars, hammers, rocks and clubs. The company did not want to make a shipping point of the junction. The railway company was in full possession of the field after the battle.

MYSTERIES OF THE DEEP.

Mast of a Large Vessel and the Hull of Another Ship Floating on the Atlantic.

NEW YORK, April 3.-Interest in the mysterious fate of the White Star line freighter Naronic was reawakened yesterday on the arrival of the British ship Trafalgar, of Glasgow, fifty-two days out from Rio de Janeiro. The Trafalgar came by way of the Delaware breakwater. Her captain reported that on March 27 while in the gulf stream he passed the floating mast of a large vessel. In shipping circles it is not thought improbable that the wreckage is from the missing Naronic. The size and shape of the mast give color to this belief, and further reports from ships sailing in the course taken by the Trafaigar are awaited with interest. The British steamship Kolpino, from London, arrived in this port yesterday morning, and her captain reports that in latitude 490 54 north, longitude 110 38' west he passed part of the hull of a wooden vessel with eighteen large iron knees standing eight feet out of the water. The yessel is a terrible obstruction to navigation, and a vessel coming in contact with her would almost surely founder.

An Ex-Railway Superintendent and Democrat Chosen Mayor of Cleveland.

Council and School Board of Columbus Republican-Democratic Judge Elected at Cincinnati-Light Vote at Evansville.

CLEVELAND, O., April 3.-A very light vote was polled at to-day's city election. Blee (Dem.) is undoubtedly elected Mayor over Akers (Rep.) by 1,200 to 1,500. Gen. E. S. Meyer, present corporation counsel, and a Republican, who ran as the nominee of the People's party, received nearly 5,000 votes, cast mainly by Republicans. Armstrong (Dera.) is re-elected city treasurer by a safe plurality, while Logue, police judge, and Fiedler, police prosecutor, both Republicans, are re-elected. The Democrats elect the justice of the peace. The Council will remain Republican. The city voted heavily in favor of annexing Brooklyn and West Cleveland, villages which will add about ten thousand to the present population.

Canton electes Republican Mayor for the first time since 1880. The Democrats get the conneil. At Youngstown the Demothere was a Republican victory. At Massillon the Democrats won. At Akron the Democrate elected every officer but marshal, their candidate for Mayor having 11 plurality.

CINCINNATI, April 3 .- In addition to officers chosen by the various wards, there were elected, to-day, by the city at large the following officers: Judge of Superior Court, clerk of Police Court and a magis-trate. Hon. Samuel F. Hunt, Democrat, the present incumbent, was elected by 700 majority over John C. Schwartz, Republican; Rehse, Republican for clerk of the Police Court, received 4,500 majority, and and McGrannahan, for magistrate, got nearly 9,000 majority. The Republicans elected a majority of the ward officers.

TOLEDO, O., April 3.-After one of the bitterest campaigns that has been fought in this city for a great many years, the Republicans succeeded in electing every man on their ticket with one exception and captured both branches of the Council Board. Major, Republican, was elected Mayor by a narrow majority of 130, and Hone, Democrat, police judge, by about three hundred majority.

COLUMBUS, O., April 3.- The Republicans of Columbus carry the Council and School Board, with the indications that the Democrats will elect the Mayor and city ticket by majorities ranging from one to three hundred. The Democrats make a slight gain over the vote of last fail. Reports from Ohio towns show mixed results and a division of honors.

Slow Count in Michigan. -DETROIT, Mich., April 3 .- An election was held throughout the State for a Judge of the Supreme Court and two regents of the State University. There were four tickets in the field-Republican, Democrat, Prohibition and Populist. Ever since the tickets were nominated an active and aggressive campaign was carried on. In addition candidates for judges of the circuit courts and school commissioners were voted for in the different counties throughout the State. Rain fell during the greater part of the day, and as a consequence the vote was considerably lighter than that cast last fall. Although the tickets were small and comparatively easy to count nothing of a definite nature is known of the result at 12 o'clock. In this city some five thousand women had registered, and almost that number cast their votes for County School Commissioner and member of the School Board.

Returns received by the Tribune (Republican) from the State, up to 1 A. M., were incomplete, but indicated the election of the entire Republican ticket by decisive pluralities. According to that paper the Republicans have also carried Wayne county and the city of Detroit, electing their judicial and school candidates, with possibly one or two exceptions.

With the exception of Detroit, most of the cities of Michigan voted for city officials. The Republicans elected their candidates for Mayor in the following places, in some cases dividing up the other offices with the Democrats: Lansing, Charlotte, Manistee, Lapere, Howell, Iron Mountain, Coldwater, St. Ignace, Midland, Hillsdale, St. Clair, Eaton Rapids and Clare. In Owosso, Monroe, Cheboygan, Mount Clemens, Jackson, Ludington, Greenville and Pontiac Democratic Mayors were elected. Marquette elected a nonpartisan ticket. In Saginaw the Republicans and nonpartisans elected both circuit judges, and the Republicans elected nine out of fifteen aldermen, giving nineteen out of

HOWL FROM BRITISHERS

London Papers Find Fault with Uncle Sam's Behring Sea Case.

Arguments Said to Be Based on Worthless Translations of Russian Documents-500 Killed in Battle in Brazil.

ALLEGED TO BE GARBLED. American Translations of Behring Sea Documents Said to Be Worthless.

LONDON, April 8 .- The newspapers generally comment on the introduction before the Behring sea court of arbitration of the British counter case, exposing the use made of mistranslations of Russian documents in the case presented by the United States. The London Standard says that sometimes the translator seems to have blundered out of sheer carelessness and in other places to have been mistaken, while some errors of omission and commission show deliberate falsification in favor of the contentions of the United States. As the agent of the United States had put the amended versions of the mistranslated documents, most people, the Standard continues, would suppose that no more be said; but it is surprising to find that, after tacitly admitting some documents to be no more reliable than the Mormon scriptures, the United States government has refrained from modifying or withdrawing the arguments based on the garbled translations, The British contention, the Standard adds. is that when the spurious passages are expunged there does not remain an atom of evidence supporting the chief American claims. In closing the Standard remarks that it would perhaps be futile to ask whether any responsible politician at Washington really thought that the device could beguile the representatives of Great Britain.

The St. James Gazette says that it does not suspect the United States government of conniving in the concocted passages, and is sure that the American people will repudiate a trick so dirty and so silly. Yet, adds the Gazette, the arguments founded on the forgeries are uncanceled.

The Daily Chronicle says, editorially, this morning: "With the greatest regret, but without misgiving, we must say that no person of intelligence can read the evidence of the blue book and acquit America of the charges of resting her case in a large measure upon evidence dishonestly procured and prepared. That a great nation should be placed by its trusted representatives in a position of appealing to the judgment of the world upon bogus treaties, contradictory evidence and impossible affidavits is the saddest spectacle that international relations have produced in a long time." FIVE HUNDRED SLAIN.

Sanguinary Encounter Between State Troops and Revolutionists in Rio Grande Do Sul. RIO DE JANEIRO, April 3.-Details have reached here of the battle fought on March 27 at Alegrete, in the State of Rio Grande Do Sul, between the State government troops and the revolutionists. According to the report that has reached this city the slaughter of the State troops was frightful. while the loss of the revolutionists was also very heavy. The revolutionists held an entrenched position at Alegrete, and when the State troops attempted to drive them from their vantage ground they made a most desperate and successful resistance. It is said that there were 1,500 combatants engaged on both sides, and that of this number five hundred were killed and a very large number wounded. The State troops were driven back and the revolutionists have now undisputed sway at Alegrete, which place is used as their base of operations against the government.
